Memorandum

2016 California Codes

Date: July 6, 2016

To: Building Department Customers

From: Jim Zicaro, MCP; Director Building and Code Enforcement

Subject: 2016 California Code Adoption

The new 2016 California Building Codes become effective on January 1, 2017. All permits applied for on or after that date must comply with the provisions of those newly adopted Codes.

Permit applications and plans submitted under the current 2013 Codes remain under that code as long as the permit or plan review remains unexpired.

Permits may be issued for projects utilizing Master Plans submitted under the 2013 Codes until June 29, 2017. Permits issued on Master Plan Projects which are issued after January 1, 2017, may not be extended.
