1. PUBLIC MEETING/STUDY SESSION:

1.A. REVIEW AND DISCUSS THE RESULTS OF THE COMMUNITY INPUT AND VISIONING SESSIONS WITH PROPERTY OWNER FOR THE MUSEUM MARKET PLAZA SPECIFIC PLAN:

MIG Representatives presented a PowerPoint presentation and recapped the activities and outcomes on the three community visioning meetings.

Mayor Pougnet and John Wessman, Wessman Development, provided a preliminary draft site plan based on the input received at the community visioning meetings.

HAROLD MEYERMAN, Palm Springs Art Museum, congratulated the City Council and Wessman Development for the process and the excellent site plan, and the focus toward the Palm Springs Art Museum.

HAROLD MATZNER, Palm Springs International Film Festival, stated the proposed redevelopment gives back the City's downtown, stated the Festival endorses the new theatre and a new theatre could provide expansion of the Palm Springs Film Festival, and commented on the benefits and support for the Palm Springs Art Museum.

DAVID BARRON, commented on the cross purposes and the unity developed by the City and Wessman Development for looking ahead and moving forward, stated his support for all the open spaces and the preliminary site plan.

JOY MERIDITH, commented on the background and getting beyond the past and what the future may bring, and stated this is a plan of hope.

BONNIE Z., requested staff address the green space and height of building and parking and the proposed street in relation to the Town and Country Center.

RICK PANTELE, stated he hopes the plan can bring the "arts" back to Palm Springs, and the vision of the plan.

JIM STEWART, congratulated the City and Consultants, commented on the theaters, and requested height for "fly ways" for live performance, requested free parking, and requested the City stay out of the process on the tenant mix.

JOHN TYMON, commented on the south-east corner, the removal of the Town and Country and the Bank of America buildings, and complimented the community visioning process.

STEVE ROSENBERG, commented on the enormous steps forward toward meeting the community vision, thanked the developer, and would like clarification on the underground parking.

FRANK TYSEN, commented on the positive elements of the site plan, thanked the City and developer for the preliminary site plan, and stated he would like to see added an element that recognizes the original Desert Inn.

GERALDINE CARPENTER, commented on how the buildings will be built, and sustainability in the City of Palm Springs.

DAVID CARDEN, stated the plan has "wow" factor, and complimented the preliminary site plan.

ALEXANDER RAYMOND, commented on sustainability in the development, commented on the process and the uplifting process incorporated by the community.

JOHN NASH, commented on the removal of the Bank of America building, the vista and the view of the mountains, and recommended the removal of other buildings for the view of the Palm Springs Art Museum and the Mountain View, and requested a "planetarium."

Mayor Pougnet commented on the sustainability features, the removal of the Town and Country, height restrictions, and the entertainment element.

John Wessman, Property Owner, commented on the existing and proposed parking, the view vistas and project height.

Councilmember Hutcheson requested the Property Owner address public restrooms, shade structures, and the possible location for a grocery store.

Councilmember Foat thanked Mr. Wessman for the preliminary site plan, and stated the plan incorporates the community comments and vision.

Councilmember Hutcheson stated the result of the City and Mr. Wessman working quickly for a first class result, commented on the improvements for the Palm Springs Art Museum, complimented the increase in open spaces, the lowering of height, commented on the adjustable amount of space, and the additional space for the Hyatt.

Councilmember Foat inquired as to the time frame of the project.

Mayor Pro Tem Weigel thanked Mr. Wessman and the City Council for making this project happen.

Mayor Pougnet requested Councilmember Mills comment on the current disconnect with the Hyatt, and the new proposal near the Hyatt.

Councilmember Mills commented on the circulation pattern, stated the proposal is the basic plan for the City Council to base the Development Agreement, stated this is the opportunity to fix a big problem in the Downtown, the plan offers flexibility for vehicles and flexibility to pedestrians, commented on the public assistance needed including funding.
