COUNCILMEMBER COMMENTS, REQUESTS, REPORTS, AND UPCOMING AGENDA DEVELOPMENT:

Councilmember Kors stated since the 1980's the City and Police Department have had policies in place that citizens are not questioned about their immigration status; adding, he had previously requested an ordinance be placed on the agenda in March which will broaden the anti-discrimination practices covering many categories, including prohibiting officials from requesting information with respect to one's immigration status, religion, sexual orientation, prohibits profiling based on those categories.

Councilmember Kors requested the following be placed on the March 1, 2017, agenda, if possible:

1. Apartment Conversions. Recently an ordinance was adopted addressing the relocation expenses due to the conversion of apartments to hotels and condominiums, and would like to expand it to address all apartment conversions.
2. Discussion of the Sign Ordinance, the immediate need is to address portable signs.

Councilmember Kors commented on the portable signs on private/public properties/sidewalks on Palm Canyon. The need for enforcement to ensure ADA compliance with respect to portable signs. There are some signs placed in the middle of the sidewalk that does not allow ample space for a wheelchair to turn around.

Councilmember Mills stated the visitors center has approximately 335,000 visitors annually, and some of the space is leased to others i.e. the Monument, Tribe, and others. Requested placing on the next agenda consideration of the adjacent property for potential use by the Tram and Tribe, adding both the Tram and Tribe have made formal decisions to explore possibilities.

Councilmember Mills stated Mr. Matthews' request is viable, and requested enforcement and resolution.
