2/2/2024	9:22 AM	20970	2510	N Cardillo	For a bout a week their pool equipment has been screeching very loud almost all day long. Is very loud, they don't have any renters at the time. It started last weekend and is going on at the moment. RP unsure if they are a short term rental.	N/A	CODE	9:50 AM	Arrived at the location at approximately 9:50 am. Was able to hear the noise coming from the pool equipment. No one was occupying the residence at the time of my arrival. The reporting party also called PSPD who were already on scene upon my arrival. I was able to locate a phone number for the owner and they were able to turn the pool equipment off via an app on his cell phone. He will have his pool technician check the equipment. This property is no longer a short-term rental.	NO
